

THE ROYAL AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY OF WA YEAR 11 RESIDENTIAL AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP

Guidelines 2019

The following are the recommended selection guidelines for the RASWA Year 11 Residential Agricultural College Scholarships, to be awarded to a selected student from each of the Residential Agricultural Colleges in Western Australia.

1. The six residential Colleges include
 - W A College of Agriculture – DENMARK
 - W A College of Agriculture – HARVEY
 - W A College of Agriculture – MORAWA
 - W A College of Agriculture – NARROGIN
 - W A College of Agriculture – CUNDERDIN
 - Catholic Agricultural College – BINDOON
2. Each College is to select one student (Boarder) currently in year 11 to receive the Scholarship of $1,500 to assist with the student's Year 12 fees (Boarder).
3. Each College is to send the name of the selected student to the Royal Agricultural Society of Western Australia each year so that the RAS can provide a Certificate for presentation.
4. The criteria selection includes:
 - (a) A student to be a reasonable achiever but has experienced some financial hardship;
 - (b) The selected student should demonstrate a potential of being involved in an accepted career in agriculture;
 - (c) The $1,500 is to be a deduction from the selected student's Year 12 college fees and is not a cash donation.
5. The Scholarship Certificate will be presented to the selected student at the College's Annual Graduation Day, Field Day or Open Day.
6. The Royal Agricultural Society of Western Australia will endeavour to provide a representative to present the Scholarship Certificate to the selected student at the nominated College event.
7. During the interviews and the presentation, the interviewer / presenter must NOT make any reference to the financial hardship of the selected student.
8. In March of the following year each College is to invoice the Royal Agricultural Society of Western Australia and confirm that the selected student is in residence so that a cheque for the $1,500 Scholarship can be credited to the recipient's College account.
